Basic 1 | Basic 2 | Intermediate 1 | Intermediate 2 | Intermediate 3 | Advanced 1 | Advanced 2

Self-introductions

- Convey basic information such as your name and line of work
- Briefly convey your personal history or present interests
- Present a self-introduction and talk about your experiences
- Convey necessary details depending on the reaction of the person you are talking to
- Advertise yourself while explaining your experience, as well as your strong and weak points
- Convey necessary details while expertly avoiding any items unfavorable to yourself

Telephone conversations

- Getting connected to the right person
- Briefly convey your intention
- Make simple arrangements with a friend
- Listen and take notes on the items mentioned
- Changing the way you talk depending on the person involved
- Take part in business meetings

Film and stage performances

- Listen to and comprehend known words, phrases, and expressions
- Understand the main story line, while relying on your visual sensation
- Even if you do not know all the words or expressions, grasp the meaning based on the main story line and visual clues
- Convey the main story line and your impressions to someone who has not seen the story
- Understand subtle distinctions in the language and expressions used

Social relationships

- Take part in normal conversation during a home stay visit
- Exchange greetings and conversation required by courtesy at a party
- Talk with your neighbors and get information necessary for daily life
- Exchange appropriate greetings on ceremonial occasions
- Be able to invite someone out for a meal together, or respond to an invitation, and take part in a pleasant chat about national affairs or cooking, etc.
- Maintain smooth human relationships through conversation
- Give an revised speech at a celebration

Student life

- Work on a joint project while exchanging information
- Debate issues at seminars, etc.
- Listen to an explanation, and fill out course registration items necessary to complete a course
- Write a report in an appropriate format
- Give a presentation on an assigned theme
- Act according to information posted on a bulletin board
- Listen to a lecture and take notes
- Consult with teachers or staff about school or daily life matters
- Ask a classmate about something you do not understand

Newspapers and television

- Check the TV column for programs you want to watch
- Guess the content of articles from the captions
- Read leading news articles using a dictionary
- Understand TV weather reports
- Listen to news on the TV
- Read an article about politics, the economy, or international issues while using a dictionary
- Read and understand articles on culture
- Enjoy documentary programs
- Almost without using a dictionary, find necessary articles and obtain correct information while comparing the data with other information
- Correctly follow news commentary

Digital mail

- Input a message in Japanese kanji and kana
- Make arrangements with a friend
- Contact a friend
- Contacts and reports in a company environment
- Correspond with clients